This questionnaire relates to the code of practice for decision-making assistants.

Under the Assisted Decision-Making (Capacity) Act 2015 (the Act) a person aged 18 or over who has difficulty making decisions without help (a “relevant person”) can appoint a decision-making assistant to assist them with decisions relating to personal welfare or property and affairs or both.

The purpose of this code of practice is to provide guidance for decision-making assistants on good practice in meeting their statutory obligations under the Act. Good practice includes adhering to the guiding principles within the 2015 Act. The code of practice sets out matters such as the practical steps to take following appointment as a decision-making assistant, acting as a decision-making assistant and supervision by the Decision Support Service.

In this questionnaire we ask questions such as whether the code of practice in general and its various sections are easy to understand, helpful and comprehensive or, if not, how they could be improved. We would also like to find out what, if any, changes the code will bring about to work practices. All responses received will be taken into consideration in the formulation of the final text of the code of practice.

We look forward to receiving your comments.
